

Simple Character Analysis

Answer these questions as the Character. Support your answers with the script.

If the answer is not in the script, be creative and make a choice.

What is your name?

Do you have any defining physical attributes?

Where do you work? What do you do?

What is your relationship to the other characters in the scene?

How do you relate to the main events of the story?

How are you changed by the events of the story?